John R. Bruggeman Appointed to ServiceSource Network Board of Directors

Alexandria, VA – The ServiceSource Network is pleased to announce the election of John R. “Jack” Bruggeman to its volunteer Board of Directors. Mr. Bruggeman, currently the Director of Acquisitions and Special Publishing with the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, has been elected to serve a three-year term.

Jack has been a member of the Board of Directors of Central Fairfax Services (CFS) since 1997. During his service, Jack was honored with the CFS William R. Arnold Volunteer of the Year Award as well as the CFS Philip N. Brophy Chairman’s Award. Jack will continue to support the mission of CFS as it becomes the fifth affiliate of the ServiceSource Network on July 1.

According to Janet Samuelson, President and CEO of the ServiceSource Network, “Jack’s knowledge, expertise and vision will be an invaluable asset to the organization, and we are thrilled that he has agreed to serve on our Board.

Jack has spent his entire professional career in reference and college textbook publishing, specializing in health care. He has worked with Prentice-Hall, Medical Economics Company, Little, Brown and Aspen Publishers. He has acquired and developed books, journals, newsletters, online products and video training programs in a variety of health care disciplines including clinical medicine, nursing, home health care, hospital administration, physician practice management, physical therapy, speech-language pathology, respiratory therapy and pharmacy. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Parent’s & Associates of the Northern Virginia Training Center in Fairfax, Virginia
