JOINT PRESS RELEASE

Central Fairfax Services Affiliates with the ServiceSource Network

Fairfax County, Virginia – Central Fairfax Services, Inc. (CFS) and the ServiceSource Network are pleased to announce the signing of an affiliation agreement between the two organizations. The affiliation, effective June 24, 2010, will make CFS the fifth affiliated non-profit organization under the ServiceSource Network.

“CFS is proud and excited to become the newest affiliate organization of The ServiceSource Network,” explained Paul Wexler, CFS Executive Director. “This partnership will strengthen the capabilities of both organizations to provide high quality services to adults with disabilities in Northern Virginia.”

The ServiceSource Network and its affiliates pride themselves on providing individuals with disabilities an exceptional service delivery experience through innovative and valued employment, training, rehabilitation and support services throughout nine states and the District of Columbia.

“The work that CFS does to enhance quality of life for individuals with disabilities has been a great asset to the community for many years. We are pleased to be collaborating with such a mission-driven organization, and look forward to working together to expand our programs and services in support of individuals with disabilities,” said Janet Samuelson, President and CEO of the ServiceSource Network.

About CFS

CFS is a day support program providing developmental and vocational services to adults with disabilities in Northern Virginia. Incorporated in 1972, CFS has grown to serve over 220 adults with intellectual, developmental, physical, and sensory disabilities. Individuals are referred by the Fairfax-Falls Church, Alexandria, and Arlington Community Services Boards. Services include speech therapy, rehabilitation engineering, physical therapy, nursing, occupational therapy, personal care, wheelchair maintenance and behavior management.

About the ServiceSource Network

The ServiceSource Network is an affiliation of four independent 501c(3) non-profit organizations: ServiceSource, headquartered in Alexandria, VA; OCI, headquartered in Wilmington, DE; Employment Source, headquartered in Fayetteville, NC; and Abilities of Florida, headquartered in Clearwater, FL. Combining national expertise with local experience, the ServiceSource Network directly employs more than 1,400 individuals with disabilities in nine states and the District of Columbia, and provides employment, training, rehabilitation and support services to more than 11,000 individuals annually.
