FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Proud Hearts Civitan Club Receives $7,500 Grant

Foundation for Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children Awards Grant

Springfield, Virginia – Central Fairfax Services, Inc. (CFS) is pleased to announce it has received a grant in the amount of $7,500 by the Foundation for Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children. The grant supports membership of CFS consumers in its Proud Hearts Civitan Club.

The Proud Hearts Civitan Club is comprised of consumers and staff of CFS, who meet monthly to plan and execute programs that will help others. Civitans are everyday citizens who come together in communities around the world to socialize, learn and serve their neighbors. The Proud Hearts Civitan Club meets the first Wednesday of every month at 2 pm at CFS.

Central Fairfax Services, Inc. is a day support program providing developmental services, vocational training, sheltered workshop and supported employment to individuals with intellectual and physical disabilities. Services include speech therapy, rehabilitation engineering, physical therapy, nursing, occupational therapy, personal care, wheelchair maintenance and behavior management.

For more information on CFS, please contact James Lewis, Community Relations Manager, at either jlewis@centralfairfaxservices.org or (703) 354-0900.
